

Knowledge and Conceptual Engineering

Llevant Meeting Room, Calipolis Hotel, Sitges, Barcelona

15-16 July 2024

09.30-10.00 Coffee (Calipolis Terrace)

10.00-11.30 Sarah Sawyer (Sussex): Conceptual Engineering and Epistemic Frameworks

11.30-11.40 Break

11.40 – 1.10 Mona Simion & Chris Kelp (Glasgow): Knowledge, Ignorance, and Conceptual Engineering

1.10-3.00 Lunch

3.00- 4.30 Bryan Pickel (Glasgow) & Derek Ball (St Andrews): Immanent Interpretation

4.30-5.00 Coffee Break (Calipolis Terrace)

5.00-6.30 Herman Cappelen (Hong Kong): The Philosophy of AI and Conceptual Engineering: Some Puzzles

8.00 Dinner

09.30-10.00 Coffee (Calipolis Terrace)

10.00-11.30: Esa Diaz-Leon (Barcelona): Conceptual evolution vs conceptual revolution: a normative account of the distinction

11.30-11.40 Break

11.40 – 1.10 Steffen Koch (Bielefeld): Ameliorative projects, psychological essentialism, and the power of nouns

1.10-3.00 Lunch

3.00- 4.30 Lilith Mace (Glasgow): Engineering Doubt

4.30-17.00 Coffee Break (Calipolis Terrace)

5.00-6.30 Rachel Sterken (Hong Kong): What CE can teach us about the ethics of data creation

08.00 Dinner

Commentator at large: Bernhard Nickel (Harvard)

Organisers: Esa Diaz-Leon, Lilith Mace, Mona Simion

Registration: free, please email Lilith.mace@glasgow.ac.uk