

Yale-UB Historical Political Economy Workshop, 2nd Edition

July 8 and 9, 2024 Barcelona

Yale University and University of Barcelona faculty are organizing a workshop in Historical Political Economy in Barcelona. The workshop is targeted at faculty, post-docs, and advanced PhDs with a focus on historical political economy.

Call for papers

The organizers welcome papers in a broad range of topics and methods examining economic and political events per se as well as research focusing on the legacies of historical events into the present day.

Questions can be addressed to Didac Queralt (didac.queralt@yale.edu) and Francesc Amat (francesc.amat@ub.edu), the Yale and UB conveners, respectively.

The conveners thank the Yale MacMillan Center and University of Barcelona for their generous support.

University of Barcelona

Keynote speaker

Kenneth Scheve
(Yale University)

Paper submission

Using this form by March 7, 2024

Decisions will be emailed in mid March.

Accommodation and meals will be provided by the organizers, and there will be limited financial assistance to cover travel expenses.