Points of small height

Sinnou David

Universitat de Paris VI

We shall discuss recents results towards the Lehmer problem and lower bounds for the normalized height of subvarieties of commutative group varieties. Most of the talk will concentrate on the abelian and toric cases. We shall conclude with open questions in the more general semi-abelian case.