

That's entertainment!

Language focus

- TV vocabulary
- Present and past simple
- Verbs for likes and dislikes

1 Identify the types of TV programme shown in the pictures below.

What other types can you think of?

Look at the following types of programme. Choose examples and talk about them.

- Documentaries
- Chat shows
- Soap operas
- Reality TV

2 You and TV

What kind of TV programmes do you usually watch?

Talk about one TV programme that you like, one that you really love and one that you dislike.

Useful language

- I often watch a fascinating programme called ...
- One programme I watch is about ...
- I absolutely love ...
- I quite/really like ...
- I can't stand ...

3 Describe a story

Talk about a series you are watching or a novel you are reading at the moment. Who are the main characters? What is the plot?

Useful language

- At the moment, I'm watching a series about ...
- The story takes place in ...
- The best thing about it is ...

4 Films

Films are often categorized by genre and some of the most popular genres are comedy, science fiction and horror films. How many other genres can you think of? Talk about your favourite films in one of them.

6 The Internet

Does the Internet offer better quality entertainment than TV?

5 The News

Talk about a news programme or publication that you like and another one that you don't like and explain the differences.

Talk about some news that you recently heard, saw or read about.

Useful language

- I heard on the radio that ...
- I saw on TV that ...
- I read in the paper that ...

