*Dean of the Faculty of Economics and Business
University of Barcelona*

The University of Barcelona's Faculty of Economics and Business is a leading centre in southern Europe for teaching economics, business, sociology and statistics. It was the first faculty to train economists in Catalonia, and combines the historical tradition of the UB with its strong commitment to modernity and internationalisation in recent years.

The UB is in the top 25 leading universities over 400 years old. In addition, it is the leader and the most innovative university in Spain, according to the main international rankings. The Faculty makes an important contribution to maintaining this position.

This position was obtained because of the quality of the courses on offer and the quality of the research. The UB School of Economics, the UB Business School and the UB School of Sociology bring together research and international postgraduate studies in economics, business and sociology. The Faculty has an important number of groups recognised as established research groups in their field by the Government of Catalonia, with hundreds of active researchers.

The Faculty offers a wide range of quality postgraduate courses for the academic year 2019-2020. These include both university master's degrees and Executive Education (UB-specific master's degrees and postgraduate courses). Situated on the Barcelona Knowledge Campus (BKC) at Pedralbes, a campus of international excellence, the Faculty of Economics and Business offers the opportunity to receive excellent training, provided by academics who are experts in their fields. A wide range of university services are available to students, such as the chance to undertake professional placements.

The Faculty of Economics and Business

The University of Barcelona was founded in 1450 and is the most formidable public institution of higher education in Catalonia today, catering to the needs of the greatest number of students and delivering the broadest and most comprehensive range of courses. The UB is also the principal centre of university research in Spain and has become a European benchmark for research activity, both in terms of the number of research programmes it conducts and the excellence these have achieved.

According to QS World University Rankings by Subject 2019

The UB is one of the few Spanish universities ranked among the top 200 in the world in the main international rankings. It is considered the 96th best university according to the Best Global Universities Rankings. In addition, it is ranked 166th worldwide according to the latest edition of the ranking published by QS World University Rankings. Finally, the university is ranked 151-200 according to the Academic Ranking of World Universities (ARWU), also known as the Shanghai Ranking.

In the QS World University Rankings by Subject 2019, the University of Barcelona was placed 152nd for social sciences and business management, the branch of knowledge in which the Faculty of Economics and Business is registered. With regard to specific disciplines, the UB has been ranked among the top 100 universities in the world for Sociology, among the top 150 for Statistics & Operational Research, among the top 200 for Economics & Econometrics and Accounting & Finance, and among the top 300 for Business & Management Studies. The QS ranking is based on three key indicators: academic reputation, employer reputation, and citations per faculty.

Internationalisation

The University of Barcelona is involved in various international university networks, including the Coimbra Group and the League of European Research Universities (LERU), in which the UB is the only Spanish institution.

The Faculty of Economics and Business has an extensive range of international mobility agreements with other institutions, both under the Erasmus programme and other programmes, which include a wide variety of destinations, as well as some of the most prestigious universities in the world.

International programmes

Some of the Erasmus agreements that have been signed under the framework of the faculty's master's programmes:

University of Amsterdam (Netherlands)
University of Copenhagen (Denmark)
University of Helsinki (Finland)
University of Groningen (Netherlands)
Ghent University (Belgium)
Aarhus University (Denmark)
Université catholique de Louvain (Belgium)
University of Bologna (Italy)
Toulouse School of Economics (France)
Copenhagen Business School (Denmark)

In addition to the agreements under the Erasmus programme, the master's degrees also have agreements with other universities, such as:

Kyoto University (Japan)
University of Toronto (Canada)
Heidelberg University (Germany)

University Master's Degrees

The University of Barcelona's Faculty of Economics and Business offers a wide range of professional and research-oriented university master's degrees in the fields of economics, business, statistics, sociology and interdisciplinary studies. These programmes have a strong international dimension, and some are taught entirely in English.

The aim of official university master's degrees is to introduce a compatible system of credits, criteria and methodology with a similar duration to that of European qualifications, in order to facilitate and promote the mobility of students, and their incorporation into the European job market.

All tuition fees for the university master's degrees are indicative and subject to approval by the Government of Catalonia. In addition, students must pay administrative fees with the enrollment. Further information about the tuition fees:

Economics

Master's degree in Economics

Seal of excellence and internationalisation by the Catalan University Quality Assurance Agency (AQU)

120
Credits

€2,790
per academic year
(60 credits)

English

Language of instruction

Coordinator:
Joan Calzada Aymerich

3,952 euros per academic year (60 credits) for students who do not currently reside in Spain and are not EU, Iceland, Norway, Liechtenstein, Switzerland, Andorra or China nationals.

Objectives:

To train and prepare economists who wish to carry out independent research in one of the best cities in the world for study: Barcelona. The Master's degree in Economics is particularly suitable for students who have just graduated and want to develop their analytical skills through a wide range of courses taught in English by our best researchers. As this is a two-year programme, students have the opportunity to learn very solid methodological principles, and specialise in the areas that are of most interest to them.

Career opportunities:

Students who complete the programme could enter a wide range of professional sectors, including higher education or economic consultancy. Graduates who are particularly interested in research could apply to the doctoral programme in Economics, and continue to do advanced research.

Mobility:

The degree offers students the chance to take up Erasmus mobility placements as well as other specific student exchange placements.

Master's degree in Economic History

Seal of excellence by the Catalan University Quality Assurance Agency (AQU)

This is an interuniversity programme between the University of Barcelona (coordinator), the Autonomous University of Barcelona and the University of Zaragoza.

Credits

€2,790

Spanish

Language of instruction

Coordinator:
Anna Carreras Marín

3,952 euros for students who do not currently reside in Spain and are not EU, Iceland, Norway, Liechtenstein, Switzerland, Andorra or China nationals.

Objectives:

To provide advanced training in research skills, techniques and methods so that students can study the field of economic history, through an integrated programme with a multidisciplinary, global approach. The programme provides advanced tools to analyse historic and economic problems. Its aim is to familiarise students with the latest practices in economic history in leading academic institutions worldwide.

Career opportunities:

Students will develop the general and specific skills required in professionals who can undertake quality research tasks in public and private research centres and universities. Graduates who do not wish to continue with doctoral studies and prefer to work as professionals in public administration, companies, or the third sector will be capable of undertaking projects with a considerable research component, such as those carried out in consultancies or research services, and will be able to provide economic advisory services for governments, non-governmental organisations for economic cooperation, and public and private institutions.

Mobility:

The degree offers students the chance to take up Erasmus mobility placements.

Master's degree in Economics, Regulation and Competition in Public Services

60
Credits

€3,300

Spanish

Language of instruction

*Optionally up to 40% in English

Coordinator:
Joan Ramon Borrell Arqué

5,994 euros for students who do not currently reside in Spain and are not EU, Iceland, Norway, Liechtenstein, Switzerland, Andorra or China nationals.

Objectives:

To prepare students for professional work in the area of economics and law in relation to the provision of public services, which are also known in the European Union as services of general interest or universal services. In particular, the programme trains students to address problems related to the liberalisation of economic public services, leading to freedom of establishment and competition among service providers.

Career opportunities:

Students who complete the programme will be able to take on management and technical responsibilities in the following areas:

-Management of regulations, corporate strategy, institutional relations and general management of public and private operators who provide services of general interest.

-Directorate-generals and sectorial directorates for instruction and research in public organisations for market regulation and supervision, or authorities that promote and defend competition.

-Legal advisors for public and private operators, supervisory and regulatory organisations, and competition authorities.

-Directorate-generals and technical directorates of ministries responsible for public service planning and regulation.

Coordinator:
Josep Maria Argilés Bosch

3,952 euros for students who do not currently reside in Spain and are not EU, Iceland, Norway, Liechtenstein, Switzerland, Andorra or China nationals.

Objectives:

To provide advanced training in research skills, techniques and methods that will enable graduates to carry out studies to increase knowledge of companies and business competitiveness. Students will develop the general and specific skills required to undertake quality research tasks in public and private research centres and universities. The programme is aimed at students with an academic, professional and, above all, research interest in business.

Career opportunities:

Graduates will gain the competences and skills required to start a doctoral thesis, as the master's degree is a training period that should be completed prior to the Doctoral programme in Business. Therefore, on completion of the master's degree, many graduates would continue with an academic career. However, although the master's degree does not have a professional focus, the knowledge gained by students enables them to apply for jobs with better conditions in the private sector.

Coordinator:
Manuela Bosch Príncipe

4,920 euros for the first year (60 credits) for students who do not currently reside in Spain and are not EU, Iceland, Norway, Liechtenstein, Switzerland, Andorra or China nationals.

Objectives:

To provide professionals with solid, quantitative training in mathematics and statistics, supported by the University of Barcelona's considerable experience in training actuaries. The UB is currently the only university in Catalonia to offer this kind of course. Actuarial studies are a fundamental requirement for joining the Catalan Association of Actuaries, and other Spanish professional associations.

Career opportunities:

Graduates in Financial and Actuarial Sciences will be experts in risk management and in uncertainty quantification. There is a high demand for these skills in banks, large companies with their own risk departments, insurance companies, brokerage firms, and other corporations that need professionals with the quantitative training required to assess risk and uncertainty. Due to their solid technical training, graduates will also be equipped to continue their studies at doctoral level.

Mobility:

The degree offers students the chance to take up Erasmus mobility placements.

Master's degree in Accounting and Taxation

20% Catalan

Language of instruction

Coordinator:
Carme Barcons Vilardell

5,700 euros for students who do not currently reside in Spain and are not EU, Iceland, Norway, Liechtenstein, Switzerland, Andorra or China nationals.

Objectives:

To provide the practical training required to become a specialist in the fields of accounting, taxation and auditing. The course will enable graduates to use sound knowledge to effectively manage tasks associated with these areas in companies of any kind and size.

Career opportunities:

In the public sector, the skills that graduates' gain on the master's degree will qualify them for management posts in any area of accountancy or taxation in public entities and companies. In the private sector, the analytical and planning skills developed during the course will enable graduates to undertake highly analytical tasks with a mid-term perspective in the areas of accountancy, taxation and auditing.

Independent work is one of the most promising areas for career development in these fields: the specialised training in accountancy and taxation will give graduates the skills required to solve problems in these areas in any organisation. Students who successfully complete this specialised master's degree will be exempt from the first stage of access to the Official Register of Accounting Auditors (ROAC), which is the starting point for the auditing profession.

Master's degree in Creation and Management of Innovative Technology- Based Companies

Coordinator:
Natalia Jaria Chacón

5,700 euros for students who do not currently reside in Spain and are not EU, Iceland, Norway, Liechtenstein, Switzerland, Andorra or China nationals.

Objectives:

To provide advanced training in the creation of companies and the management of innovation, to train future entrepreneurs and managers of innovative companies to the highest level, and to train professionals who can manage innovation and have the tools required to start innovative business initiatives. Therefore, the aim is to provide competences and skills that enable students to manage projects and/or innovative processes, start business initiatives, begin new projects, and launch them on the market.

Career opportunities:

The competences gained on this master's degree will help professionals from different fields to undertake entrepreneurial and innovative activities that are mainly associated with the application of new technologies. These are high value-added activities, and are vital to business development. Expectations for future growth in this area are high. These activities are potential sources of business opportunities and employment growth, which is one of the main problems in the Spanish economy at present.

Languages

* Language Services

The UB's Language Services are responsible for promoting the Catalan language and for building a multilingual university community. They offer advice on linguistic matters to all members of the university community.

Further information:

<http://www.ub.edu/sl>

* School of Modern Languages

The School of Modern Languages offers training in nine languages to the university community. Courses can be taken as semester-long modules or full-year programmes, with face-to-face, blended and distance learning options available.

Study in Barcelona

Barcelona is one of the most prosperous cities in Europe and a fantastic place to live, with a sunny climate and a cosmopolitan cultural life. It is also affordable, particularly when compared to cities such as London and Paris, offering an excellent quality of life and a diverse student mix.

The University of Barcelona offers students the chance to study and undertake research at an institution that is fully integrated into the city around it. Lying on the Mediterranean coast, and with a population of over 1.5 million, Barcelona is one of the most economically, socially and culturally important cities in Europe and is characterised by its extraordinary diversity. Graduates of the UB enjoy an excellent reputation among international employers. In fact, Barcelona ranks as the 31st best university city in the world According to QS Best Student Cities 2018, which combines data on universities, student population, affordability, quality of life and reputation with employers.

General advice and accommodation support

Barcelona Centre Universitari (BCU) offers students admitted to courses at the UB a wide and varied range of accommodation options:

- Halls of residence, rooms in shared flats, home stays, rental apartments and more.

- A free information service is available to all students looking to rent an apartment in Barcelona.
